To whom it may concern:

This letter is to confirm that Ms. Paloma Merodio, a student of the Master of Public Administration in International Development program at the Harvard Kennedy School, Harvard University, has been awarded a grant to perform her own independent research in Indonesia. The grant was awarded by the Harvard Kennedy School Indonesia Program for the semester break in June to August 2012. We anticipate that she will return to campus for classes in late August 2012.

Thank you for courtesy and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Osborn, Program Director

To Whom It May Concern:

I'm writing to confirm that Paloma Merodio, a citizen of Mexico, graduated as a student in good standing in the Master in Public Administration in International Development (MPA/ID) Program at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. She started the Program on August 15, 2011, and graduated on May 30, 2013.

Ms. Merodio served as a course assistant for Professor Filipe Campante for the class API-119: Advanced Macroeconomics for the Open Economy II.

Ms. Merodio wrote her Second Year Policy Analysis (SYPA) on the topic: "Water Changes Everything: Increasing sustainable access to improved water sources in rural Indonesia." Her SYPA advisor was Ryan Sheely and section leader Professor Michael Walton.

México City, September 1st. 2016.

Mrs. Paloma Merodio Gómez

Dear Paloma,

First and foremost I truly hope this letter finds you well. With respect to support received from the Fundación México en Harvard to assist in the cost of your graduate studies, I would like to take this opportunity to inform you such obligations have been converted to scholarship support, given your compliance with the policy of three consecutive years of full time employment and contribution within the public sector in México. The obligations are not payable to the Fundación therefore and you will find attached the original documentation, thus marked, for your records.

Please allow us to express our sentiment that to assist extraordinary students and scholars, whom without our additional support may not have been able to accept the opportunity and challenge to study and research at Harvard University, is for all of us that collaborate with the Fundación an honour and a privilege. We are truly inspired by all of you.

We are most interested in hearing how you are doing - hearing more about your work professionally, your numerous accomplishments – and not losing touch with you. Please take a moment to keep us informed of your contact information and keep us posted on your new and exciting endeavours.

If you have any questions with respect to this conversion, please do not hesitate to contact me at brandolph@fundacionharvard.org or via telephone at 5229-5877.

We send you our warmest regards and best wishes as always,

Patricia Villarreal Vidales

P R E S E N T E

Estimada Paloma,

Adjunto encontrarás las evaluaciones docentes correspondientes al periodo de primavera 2016. Durante este periodo el Departamento de Economía impartió 131 grupos en formato semestral en niveles de licenciatura, maestría y doctorado; y 20 grupos a en formato trimestral a nivel maestría. Durante dicho periodo el promedio ponderado por número de alumnos de los cursos impartidos por el Departamento de Economía fue de 4.35 en formato semestral y 4.32 en formato trimestral en lo que corresponde al rubro A6 (evaluación general del profesor). Estos resultados presentan una mejoría respecto al semestre anterior y nos tienes en niveles cercanos al máximo histórico.

En los cursos que impartiste el promedio ponderado de las evaluaciones fue de 4.85, con un total de 14 alumnos que respondieron la encuesta. Te agradezco tu participación con el Departamento y me pongo a tus órdenes con cualquier duda o comentario que puedas tener.

Atentamente,

Diego Alejandro Domínguez Larrea
Jefe del Departamento Académico de Economía
Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México
